to ve is patient, love is kind. It always protects, always trusts, always i always perseveres. Love never fails. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love." I Corinthians 13

The life and legacy of Supervisor Richardine Lucille Hunt is a story of love for family, service to the community, and devotion to the Lord.

She was born in Dumas, Arkansas on September 9, 1923 to Deacon Virgil Jr. and Mother Laura Meeks. She was the youngest of nine children: Pearl, Maddie, William, Vincent, Theophilus, Coy, Reuben, and Otis. The family moved to Monrovia, California soon after she was born, and settled in Bakersfield, California when she was three months old.

She matriculated through the Bakersfield school system by attending Longfellow Elementary School, Washington Junior High School, and graduating from Kern County High School in 1942. Her higher education included enrollment at Bakersfield Junior College where she was the Head Librarian of the Lakeview Branch of Kern County Library.

On October 4,

1942, she was united in holy matrimony to Deacon William A. Hunt, Sr. at the O Street Church of God in Christ in Bakersfield, California. God blessed their union with five children: Carolyn Joann, William Augustus, Jr., Michael Richard, Jeffery Charles, and Kirk Wesley.

" Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment." Matthew 22 In 1960, the Hunt family moved to Sacramento, California and joined Faith Temple COGIC under the leadership of Pastor QC Simmons. In 1968, the Hunt family joined Nash Temple COGIC where her leadership capacity was evident as she started the renowned Junior Choir that toured throughout California.

Expanding in ministry, in 1970, six families came together in the Hunt home to establish the first Church of God in Christ work in North Highlands, California. Mother and Deacon Hunt labored diligently for 25 years at the North Highlands Community COGIC, under the leadership of Bishop Albert Galbraith Jr.

" Love the Lord your God and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. Deuteronomy 11 Young Richardine was saved as a girl and received the baptism of the Holy Ghost at the age of sixteen. Her love of God and service to the church continued for more than seventy years of Christian service.

On the local level, she served as Choir President, Sunday School Superintendent and YPWW President. On the district level, she served as District YPWW Chairlady followed by District Missionary for 24 years. On the jurisdictional level, she served as Jurisdictional YPWW Chairlady, Jurisdictional Sunday School Field Representative, and was the State Women's Convention Chairperson for 10 years.

Mother Hunt served as a Church Mother for over 30 years. Jurisdictionally, her trajectory of supervisory leadership in the Women's Department began as 2nd Assistant Supervisor to Mother E.M. Devers, and then 1st Assistant Supervisor to Mother G.E. Smith. Because of her exemplary service, in 1990 she was appointed by General Supervisor, Dr. Mattie McGlothen, as the National Chairperson of Assistant State Supervisors.

In 1993, Mother Hunt was elevated to State Supervisor of Women for Northern California First Jurisdiction, under the leadership of Bishop B.R. Stewart. She continued to serve faithfully in this position under the leadership of Bishop L.C. Patton, and the present leadership of Bishop Albert Galbraith. In 2001, Mother Hunt was appointed by General Supervisor Willie Mae Rivers to the Executive Board of the International Department of Women.

Deuteronomy 11: 22

Mother Hunt loved her family and taught them to be obedient to the Lord. She represented holiness. In daily prayer, she would call each one by name, nearly 50, while on her knees. As a result, all of her offspring serve in ministry. With this Family meant so much to Mother Hunt. She was proud of her immediate and extended relatives and would often share their many spiritual and professional accomplishments. She was affectionately known as "Mama" by her children, grandchildren and more. She enjoyed dressing well, especially with "Church Hats" and jewelry. Her nieces and nephews referred to her with the homonym, "Aunt Rich" since her name was Richardine and she always looked rich!

" Dove you, Lord, my strength." Psalm 18:1

Mother Hunt loved to sing, "He's Sweet I Know." When she would stand and give her testimony, it always ended with the declaration, "Truly it is my expectation to make heaven my home."

To cherish her warm memories, she leaves five children: Mother Carolyn Galbraith (Bishop Albert Galbraith), Pastor William A. Hunt, Jr. (Lady Gloria), Deacon Michael Hunt, Pastor Jeffery Hunt, Sr. (Lady Pamela), Deacon Kirk Hunt (Debra); 13 grandchildren: Pastor A. Scott Galbraith (Dr. Carla L.), Dr. Carla T. Galbraith, Lady Camille Jefferson (Supt. P. Daniels), Stephanie Baker (Millard), Staci Richardine Adkins (Darris), William A. Hunt, III (Yolanda), Makicha Wartson (James), Jennifer Manchester (John), Jessica West (Gregory), Jeffery Hunt, Jr., Philip Hunt, Kristopher Hunt, and Jordan Hunt; 24 great-grandchildren, one great-great grandson, two sisters-in-law, Floy Meeks and Betty Austin, one brother-in-law, Authur Taylor; a host of nieces and nephews, a faithful caregiver, Tyszu Hutchins, Gramercy Court Staff, God's Grace COGIC Church Family, and many sons and daughters in Northern California First Jurisdiction COGIC.

Preceding her in death is her loving husband of 63 years, Deacon William A. Hunt, Sr., her parents, Virgil Jr. and Laura Meeks, her 8 older siblings, and one grandson, Albert Dean Galbraith III.
